

1 Q Do you have an employment agreement with
2 Gloryvision?

3 A Not to my knowledge.

4 Q Do you have an employment agreement with
5 Mongo Musico?

6 A Not to my knowledge.

7 Q Could you describe the activities of
8 Gloryvision?

9 MR. MONAGHAN: When? When?

10 MR. SHELOWITZ: Now.

11 THE DEPONENT: At the moment Gloryvision is
12 reviewing and considering what our next project
13 will be and how we want to move forward in the 14 future.

15 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

16 Q And when was the last project that was
17 undertaken by Gloryvision completed?

18 A Our last project was Songs for Cats. And
19 then we -- after we did that we began development of a
20 film script. And in -- somewhere in 2006 we looked 21 into remarketing our product and we decided to see what 22 was out there on the Internet and looked on-line and
23 typed up our product Songs for Dogs and Songs for Cats
24 and saw it was being sold all over the world --

25 Q There's no --

1           A       -- by Media Right and by The Orchard.

2           Q       There's no question that's been posed.

3           MR. MONAGHAN: Yes, there is.

4 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

5           Q       The question was what was the last project by
6 Gloryvision. The answer was Songs for Cats. Okay.

7           MR. MONAGHAN: I thought you asked what she
8 was doing, what Gloryvision was doing.

9           MR. SHELOWITZ: I think that you're starting
10 to play some games here and I'm really -- I'm 11 disappointed and I think it's unfair to the 12 Defendants. And I'm sure that if the Judge, you
13 know, were to review the transcript, that she
14 would also be a little bit disappointed.

15           We're trying to get some answers. You're 16 suing -- your clients are suing my clients. I'm 17 asking some questions. I'm not asking for any 18 kind of, you know, speech about the case.

19           MR. MONAGHAN: Would you please get to the 20 next question?

21           MR. SHELOWITZ: I'm asking the questions just 22 like we gave you the courtesy to ask six hours of 23 questions to Mr. Maxwell.

24           MR. MONAGHAN: Would you get to your next
25 question?

1 MR. SHELOWITZ: We expect the same courtesy.

2 MR. MONAGHAN: Would you get to your next
3 question, please?

4 MR. SHELOWITZ: And, you know, again --

5 MR. MONAGHAN: Would you get to your next
6 question?

7 MR. SHELOWITZ: -- the tone and the types of
8 interruption that I'm seeing and hearing, and
9 coaching, is really not called for and I don't
10 think it's permitted, frankly.

11 MR. MONAGHAN: Next question.

12 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

13 Q Ms. Bernfeld, when was the last time to the 14 best of your knowledge that Gloryvision has received
15 any revenue in connection with any projects undertaken
16 by the company?

17 MR. MONAGHAN: Object as irrelevant. I'll
18 let her answer.

19 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

20 Q You can answer the question.

21 A Yes. We still have sales of Songs for Dogs
22 and Anne usually handles them. And I know I spoke with 23 somebody the other day who --

24 Q Again, I will ask you the questions, and 25 you've answered it.

1 Now, another question that I have is do you
2 get paid by Gloryvision?

3 MR. MONAGHAN: When? When?

4 MR. SHELOWITZ: I'm asking a question, and if
5 she can answer the question --

6 MR. MONAGHAN: Then I object to the form.
7 You'll have to specify a time.

8 MR. SHELOWITZ: And that's what you're
9 entitled to do. Okay?

10 MR. MONAGHAN: Specify a time.

11 MR. SHELOWITZ: If you have an objection,
12 state your objection.

13 MR. MONAGHAN: I just did.

14 MR. SHELOWITZ: The witness answered the 15 question. Again, I'm not giving another warning.
16 The next call is I'm going to stop this deposition
17 and we're going to make it go forward in Florida.

18 (Overlapping speech.)

19 MR. SHELOWITZ: The Judge said we should give 20 it a try by phone. I was not happy about it. And 21 I'm trying to do the best that I can. But you're
22 not allowing me to ask questions that are relevant
23 and you're objecting inappropriately.

24 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

25 Q So I'm asking you a question, does -- do you

1 receive any payment from Gloryvision?

2 A Not at the moment.

3 Q And when was the last time you received a
4 payment from Gloryvision?

5 A You mean a payment from Gloryvision
6 personally like Gloryvision pays me or does -- or
7 Gloryvision receives money? I'm confused.

8 Q When was the last time that you, Ellen
9 Bernfeld, received some payment from Gloryvision?

10 MR. MONAGHAN: Object to the question.

11 THE DEPONENT: I don't really -- I don't --

12 MR. MONAGHAN: Irrelevant.

13 THE DEPONENT: Yeah. I don't remember
14 actually.

15 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

16 Q Have you ever received any payments from
17 Gloryvision?

18 A I don't remember. I'm not sure.

19 Q What was your understanding in connection
20 with -- if any?

21 A In terms of my -- well, with Gloryvision it's 22 Anne and my -- my understanding is Gloryvision is Anne
23 and my company and we created this production company
24 to create entertainment of properties and products.

25 Q And were you ever supposed to receive any

1 payment for any -- any sales of any properties or
2 products created by Gloryvision?

3 A Possibly, yes, but Anne and I funded our
4 productions with our own money.

5 Q With the sales of, for example, Songs for
6 Dogs, did you anticipate you, Ellen Bernfeld
7 anticipate, receiving any money from Gloryvision
8 resulting from the sales of that product?

9 A Sure.

10 Q And did you ever receive any money for the 11 sales of that product?

12 A Yes, I did -- Gloryvision received money for 13 the sales of that product.

14 Q Did you ever receive any money?

15 A Did I ever receive any money? I don't -- I'm 16 not sure. Because we put the money back into
17 Gloryvision.

18 Q Did you ever ask -- did you ever ask Anne how
19 much money the company had earned from sales of Songs
20 for Dogs?

21 A Possibly.

22 Q Did she ever answer you?

23 A It was more about -- rather than money, it
24 was more about how much product we sold.

25 Q So she -- Anne Bernfeld never told you how

1 much money Gloryvision earned from the sales of Songs
2 for Dogs?

3 A I'm not sure.

4 Q And what about Songs for Cats?

5 A I'm not sure.

6 Q Okay. So is it true that you have no idea
7 how much money, if any, was ever earned by Gloryvision
8 from the sales of Songs for Dogs and Songs for Cats?

9 A No, that's not true.

10 Q And why isn't that true?

11 A Because it's -- because we didn't discuss it
12 in terms of money, we discussed it in terms of 13 products. So if my product sold about -- if Songs for 14 Dogs sold 10,000 copies and it was -- it was -- the
15 gift box cost, I think it was, 18.95, then you times
16 that by 10,000 and you get how much revenue you made.

17 Q So --

18 A So, I mean --

19 Q What was sold for 18.95?

20 A The gift box initially was sold for -- I
21 think it was sold for 18.95 initially.

22 Q And do you know of the Songs for Dogs how
23 many gift boxes you had sold?

24 A I'm not sure exactly.

25 Q Is it more than 500?

1 A I think so.

2 Q Is it more than 1,000?

3 A I don't know. I don't know the figure.

4 Q Do you think it's probably between 500 and
5 1,000 gift boxes that were sold?

6 A I don't know.

7 Q Do you know how many you produced?

8 A I think -- I'm not exactly sure. I think
9 maybe --

10 MR. MONAGHAN: Don't speculate.

11 THE DEPONENT: Yeah. I don't know. I'm not
12 exactly sure.

13 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

14 Q Did you produce more than ten?

15 A Oh, yes.

16 Q And what is -- you know that it's more than
17 ten and you don't really know how much --

18 A I mean, I'm going to -- how much?

19 Q How many gift boxes were produced?

20 MR. MONAGHAN: When you say produced, you
21 mean manufactured?

22 MR. SHELOWITZ: Yes.

23 THE DEPONENT: The gift boxes, right,
24 themselves?

25

1 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

2 Q You talked about 18.95.

3 A Yes.

4 Q So what is your understanding of what was
5 included in the items that were sold for 18.95?

6 A The specific thing that was sold for 18.95 I
7 think was a CD in a gift box with a book that -- a
8 fully illustrated book with a story.

9 Q Okay. And how many of those were sold?

10 A I'm not sure.

11 Q And so my question to you is were you
12 involved in -- you said that you were involved in the 13 production of everything.

14 A Yes.

15 Q And you were involved with the oversight.
16 And how would they be manufactured? Would you be the 17 person to order -- to call the company that would be 18 the -- the product to be manufactured that was being
19 sold for 18.95 that you just described?

20 A Either myself or Anne.

21 Q And did you do it in this case?

22 A I may have had conversations with them, and I
23 know I did interview companies, and I'm not sure who 24 said -- I'm not sure who gave the go-ahead, me or Anne,
25 on that.

1 Q And you don't remember how many --

2 A I think maybe 1,000 copies. You know, it's
3 hard -- it was a long time ago. So it's -- you know,
4 we're talking about 1994. So it's -- it's a long time
5 ago.

6 Q And did you ever order after the initial 7 order of 1,000, did you ever have a second order?

8 A Of the gift boxes?

9 Q Yes.

10 A No, I don't think we ordered -- reordered the 11 gift boxes. I'm not sure, but I don't think so.

12 Q And it is correct that you never produced
13 those gift boxes like you did for Songs for Dogs in 14 1994 or Songs for Cats later on?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q So going back to the 10,000 unit number that
17 we talked about for the Songs for Cats -- for the Songs
18 for Dogs, excuse me. So if 1,000 was produced, then 19 you would say 9,000, you know, of those 10,000 were
20 maybe for Songs for Cats; is that correct?

21 A I'm confused with the question. Could you
22 repeat it, please?

23 Q We were talking earlier about what the total
24 sales have been, and I was asking you, you know, how 25 much money the company made from the sales of Songs for

1 Cats and you said you had no idea.

2 A Right.

3 Q And so you then described the fact that you
4 were getting numbers from Anne and units sold; is that 5 correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And so my question to you was -- I'm trying
8 to understand what -- you said that 10,000 is the 9 number --

10 A Yeah.

11 Q -- that you believe was sold for Songs for 12 Dogs.

13 A Yes, approximately that. Yes.

14 Q Okay. And so, again, I'm trying to 15 understand what amounts you may have earned from those 16 sales. You talked about 18.95.

17 Now, you've produced 1,000, you don't know if
18 you've sold 1,000. Do you have any of those gift box
19 and book sets left over anywhere?

20 A Yeah, we have some of them, and they've 21 actually become collectors' items on the --

22 Q And do you know how many you have?

23 A No, I don't.

24 Q And who would know that?

25 A Anne possibly would know that.

1 Q Do you have a warehouse where you store --

2 A We have a storage area where we have them.

3 Q And where is that located?

4 A In our office. Outside our office in
5 Garnerville.

6 Q Is that the one in Garnerville Holding
7 Company?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And with regard to the Songs for Cats, do you
10 know how many units were sold?

11 A I'm not sure how many units were sold.

12 Q Do you think it was more than 1,000?

13 A Very possibly.

14 Q Do you think it was more than 2,000?

15 A Very possibly.

16 Q Was it more than 3,000?

17 A Very possibly.

18 Q Was it less than 5,000?

19 A I don't know.

20 Q Was it more than 4,000?

21 A I'm not sure.

22 Q So would you say that the best of your
23 recollection as you sit here today that that number was 24 probably between 3,000 to 4,000 of Songs for Cats sold?

25 A Possibly. Possibly more. I just don't know

1 -- I just don't think it sold quite as much as Songs
2 for Dogs because we did not -- we weren't able to get
3 the marketing that we got with Songs for Dogs when we
4 did --

5 Q Did you ever ask Anne how many units of Songs
6 for Cats you had sold?

7 A I may have.

8 Q And did she ever answer you?

9 A She may have.

10 Q And --

11 A I mean, it was -- it was in the thousands. I
12 just don't know exactly what it was.

13 Q And would you remember if it was -- if it
14 was, you know, between 3,000 and 4,000 units? You're 15 under oath and it's --

16 A I don't really remember. That's it. I don't 17 remember. So that's my honest answer, is I don't
18 remember how many units -- I don't remember. I
19 remember the Songs for Dogs figure, I don't remember
20 the Songs for Cats figure.

21 Q When was the first time that you met Anne
22 Bryant?

23 A I met Anne Bryant in the 1970s in a recording
24 studio in Manhattan.

25 Q Have you done any joint work with Ms. Bryant?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And can you describe that for us?

3 A Oh, I first met her on -- she was doing
4 arranging for a very successful songwriter, Jennie
5 Redington, who owned her own company, Twin Star Music
6 in Manhattan, a jingle company, and she was arranging
7 her album and I was singing on her album. That's when 8 I first met Anne.

9 Q And when did you first go into business
10 together?

11 A We first went into business together when we 12 formed Gloryvision. But I knew Anne before that 13 because Anne -- that's when I first met Anne, I told
14 you, with Jennie Redington.

15 Then Anne went on to have her own company and 16 she hired me as a singer. And she wrote The 17 Transformers and wrote The Jem show. And I sang one of 18 the leading roles, Pizzazz, in the Jem show and did a
19 lot of work with her when she had her own company. And 20 then we started collaborating during that period on a
21 band that I had. I had already had a hit dance record
22 in New York City.

23 Q Okay.

24 A And then Anne and I started --

25 Q The question was when did you first go into

1 business together, just to --

2 A I thought you said collaborating.

3 Q No. When did you first go into business
4 together?

5 A When we formed Gloryvision it was
6 surrounding -- in the early '90s we did a children's
7 production called the Adventures of the Mirror Kids,
8 and that was when we formed Gloryvision.

9 Q Okay.

10 A Or the late '80s or early '90s.

11 Q Before 1994 when you started to sell Songs
12 for Dogs that we had discussed earlier, had Gloryvision
13 sold any other recordings?

14 A No.

15 Q So is it true that Songs for Dogs was the 16 first product?

17 A No, actually, it's not true. We did a very 18 complex and extensive production on a piece called the
19 Adventures of the Mirror Kids, and we had a cassette
20 and a book manufactured with that. And actually that's 21 in Westwood, New Jersey. That's where we originally 22 started manufacturing Songs for Dogs and Songs for
23 Cats.

24 And then we were beginning to market this as
25 an audio product for kids. And it was a very inventive

1 piece and we had some difficulty with marketing it in
2 the sense -- and so we said we're going to hold off on
3 that. We completed it, we're going to hold off on that
4 for a little bit. And then we did Songs for Dogs after 5 that product.

6 Q And just again, that -- what did you call
7 that first piece that you had just -- Adventurers?

8 A It's called the Adventures of the Mirror
9 Kids.

10 Q And --

11 A It was a radio show for children.

12 Q And was there any form of media or records or
13 anything else that was sold by Gloryvision --

14 A No.

15 Q -- regarding that?

16 A No, other than -- no.

17 Q So with regard to the first kind of sale that 18 was made by Gloryvision, is it correct that it was 19 Songs for Dogs?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And following that was Songs for Cats; is 22 that correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And is it also true that there have been no
25 other products sold by Gloryvision other than Songs for

1 Dogs and Songs for Cats?

2 A At the moment, yes.

3 Q Did you and Ms. Bryant ever enter into a
4 written contract with each other?

5 A Whatever the -- whatever the corporate papers
6 of Gloryvision are, that's our contract together, the 7 50 percent owners.

8 MR. SHELOWITZ: I'd request that that be 9 produced. We had asked for that in the 10 production. We would like to have the -- if it's 11 bylaws, operating agreements, certificate of 12 incorporation. Those corporate documents.

13 MR. MONAGHAN: I understand your request.

14 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

15 Q Were there any other agreements that you and 16 Ms. Bryant have entered into?

17 A No.

18 Q With regard for -- with regard to the 19 production of Songs for Dogs, do you recall who was 20 involved with the project from the beginning until the 21 end until the CDs and cassettes were made?

22 A Which part of the project?

23 Q From the -- writing the songs to producing
24 them and selling them. Were there any people other
25 than you and Anne Bryant involved?

1           A     Well, we hired an engineer, a mastering
2 facility and a mastering engineer, and we hired vocal
3 talent from the best studio singers in New York City to 4 sing on the albums.

5           Q     And who is the vocal talent that you're
6 referring to?

7           A     Myself and the other cast of characters that
8 sang on the records.

9           Q     And who are those people?

10          A     Russell Valasquez, Jennie Redington, Leslie
11 Miller, Julie Eigenberg.

12          Q     After Russell Valasquez who was the other
13 person?

14          A     Leslie Miller, Julie Eigenberg, Mike Harvey.

15          Q     Mike Hardy?

16          A     Mike Harvey. Harvey. Mike Harvey.

17                   Al Dana, Tom Dawes, who is now deceased.

18          Q     And these are all on Songs for Dogs, each of 19 these performers?

20          A     Yes, this is a combination of -- I'm kind of 21 referring to Songs for Dogs and Songs for Cats. We 22 used a similar cast on both albums.

23                   Let me see if I left anybody out. And my
24 brother, Tom Bernfeld, also sang on the albums.

25          Q     Tom Bernfeld?

1 A Uh-huh.

2 Q And is there anywhere that we can see any
3 kind of attribution of any of these singers in any of 4 your materials anywhere?

5 A They're given credit on the albums' booklets
6 and in the book, and on the -- on the CD, not on the
7 back of the CD, but in the booklets. And on the gift
8 box it was -- I think the credit was on the back of the 9 box. So, yes.

10 Q And this was in -- were any of the people
11 that you just named not involved on both of the CDs?
12 You named Ellen Bernfeld. Well, that's you. Russell
13 Valasquez, okay, was he involved with Songs for Cats
14 songs?

15 A He was on Songs for Cats. I don't think he 16 was on Songs for Dogs.

17 Q And do you recall which songs he was involved
18 with?

19 A Yeah. He sang the lead on the Scat Cat.
20 That was a --

21 Q Okay. Anything else?

22 A No. He did -- that was Tap Tap, Jr., the 23 Scat Cat. He did a Sammy Davis kind of thing --
24 version of The Scat Cat.

25 Q Okay. And Leslie Miller, was she on Cats and

1 Dogs?

2 A Leslie Miller was on Cats and Dogs.

3 Q And what did she sing?

4 A She sang Tomorrow's Another Day on Dogs. She
5 sang the lead on that. She sang on Cats in the 6 background on a number of tunes; Watchin' Purry Mason.
7 She sang on Curious X9, the backgrounds on that. She
8 sang on Allergic To You.

9 Q And did you pay these singers to perform on 10 the Songs for Dogs and Songs for Cats songs?

11 A Anne handled all of that, so --

12 Q So you don't know if any of these --

13 A Yes. Oh, no, we did pay people, absolutely.

14 Q And the question is have you paid all of 15 them?

16 A I'm not sure whether we paid all of them.
17 Anne would know the answer to that.

18 Q And did you ever pay any of these people --
19 well, strike that.

20 When you paid them, what was the model of 21 payment, if you recall?

22 A I'm not really sure because Anne handled the 23 payment aspect of the company, paying the performers.

24 Q Did you pay them, you know, per hour of work?

25 A That was Anne's department. Because Anne

1 owned a very successful production company, so she
2 handled the payment of the performers.

3 Q So you don't know anything about how these
4 people were compensated for their role on --

5 A They were compensated probably -- I mean,
6 from my knowledge as a studio singer for, you know, a
7 session, et cetera, a session, which is probably --
8 it's, you know, a session rate.

9 Q So you would pay them for a session rate?

10 A Yeah.

11 Q Okay. And then with regard to any sales of 12 the records or the songs on -- any of the songs on 13 Songs for Dogs and any of the songs on Songs for Cats,
14 did you ever share any of the revenue from that with 15 any of these people?

16 A I'm not sure. I don't really know. Not to 17 my knowledge.

18 Q Do you recall how much studio time it took to 19 record Songs for Cats?

20 A No.

21 Q Do you recall approximately how long?

22 A No. It was a very involved production. It
23 took a long time. It was a tremendous amount of work.

24 Q Like a week?

25 A Oh, no, much more than a week. It took -- it

1 was -- we were in production probably for months. You
2 know, a couple of months.

3 Q Like about two months?

4 A Maybe more.

5 Q Three months?

6 A Maybe more than three months.

7 Q You wouldn't recall exactly how long it would
8 take you to produce this?

9 A It was a period of months. I mean, I would
10 say -- I don't know if it was more than -- you're 11 talking about -- you're talking about the actual
12 production of when you went in to record it or --
13 because it's --

14 (Overlapping speech.)

15 Q You would go one day on, you know, some 16 songs, you would sing them, they would be finished, and 17 then you would bring the next singers in?

18 A I would say it took us, I'm not exactly sure,
19 a couple months. But that's not including the writing
20 and the prep work before that.

21 Q I'm not talking about the writing, I'm 22 talking about the --

23 A The actual studio.

24 (Overlapping speech.)

25 Q Hiring some engineers to do the work. So the

1 question is how long did you have the engineers working
2 in the studio with the performers?

3 A Oh, I would say maybe a couple of months.

4 Q Every day?

5 A It wasn't necessarily every day for a couple
6 of months.

7 Q That's what I'm trying to understand,
8 Ms. Bernfeld, is, you know --

9 A Well, maybe it took us, maybe, a month or 10 two. I mean, if you were going to distill it down,
11 maybe -- to look at it every day, it's hard to know
12 exactly. But maybe -- maybe a month, maybe a month and 13 a half, maybe two months.

14 You're talking about recording and mixing and 15 mastering; right?

16 Q No, I'm talking about having the performers
17 that you just listed for us in the studio. How much
18 time did it take you with those recorders in the studio
19 to sing? I mean, how many takes would you do? Five
20 takes of each song?

21 A Oh, I thought you were talking about how long
22 it took for the -- you're not asking me how long it
23 took for the production of the album?

24 Q No, I'm talking about how long were the 25 performers that you just listed for us in the studio?

1 A Okay. Well --

2 Q With Cats.

3 A With Cats. Maybe -- maybe with the -- maybe
4 a month if I were going to distill it and try to break
5 it down, a day-to-day thing. It's hard to -- because,
6 you know, we would record with one performer and --

7 Q Studio time?

8 A Excuse me?

9 Q A month of studio time?

10 A Possibly. Sure. I mean, possibly. Yeah.

11 Q Do you have any kind of receipts or any proof
12 of any -- of the payments that were made to any of 13 these people so you can identify how long it was?

14 A I'm not sure whether we have that 15 information. Anne would know more about that.

16 Q And which studio did you record in?

17 A We recorded at Gloryvision studio.

18 Q In Garnerville?

19 A Yeah. We recorded -- yes.

20 Q And that was for Songs for Dogs and Songs for
21 Cats?

22 A Yeah. Songs for Dogs -- see, we have a
23 studio in Garnerville. We also had a studio at -- in 24 Stony Point as well, and so they were recorded in both
25 places. It was a professional studio.

1 Q Now, going back to this Garnerville location,
2 do you own the rooms that you have there or do you
3 lease them?

4 A They're leased.

5 Q And what is the length of the term of that
6 lease?

7 A It's a renewable yearly lease, yearly to
8 two-year lease. We've rented it for two years at a
9 time and a year and --

10 Q When was the first time you started to use
11 that Garnerville studio?

12 A Oh, I think in 1994.

13 Q And you've used it continuously until today?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And is there sound equipment in that studio?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And whose sound equipment is that?

18 A That is Gloryvision's and some of Anne
19 Bryant's equipment as well.

20 Q And how often do you visit the Garnerville
21 studio each year?

22 A Anne visits it much more often than I do.

23 Q How often do you --

24 A I maybe visit it once, twice a week.

25 Q Every week?

1 A When I'm in the New York area.

2 Q And when are you in the New York area?

3 A From the end of May until the end of October.

4 Q And how long have you been following that
5 schedule that you just described?

6 A For the last two years.

7 Q With regard to each song on Songs for Cats,
8 can you tell me what songs you wrote?

9 A The Songs for Cats?

10 Q Yes.

11 A Yeah. I wrote Allergic To You. I wrote
12 Curious X9. I wrote Watchin' Purrry Mason. What else
13 did I write? Let me see. I'm going blank.

14 There we go. I wrote Sweetie The Gourmet.

15 Anne wrote the bridge on Sweetie The Gourmet. I wrote
16 Curious --

17 Q What did you write, though? Allergic?

18 A Yeah, I wrote Allergic, I wrote Curious X9.

19 I wrote the words to Oh, My Little Sushi. I wrote Scat
20 Cat, I wrote I Pray for the World, I wrote Catarina,
21 The Ballerina, I wrote Where Will I Sleep Tonight, and
22 I wrote I'm Purrrfect.

23 I wrote more of Songs for Cats than Anne did
24 because Anne's -- she had -- her mother had -- she was
25 -- she had met her mother and her mother had passed

1 away right around that time, so --

2 Q And on Songs for Dogs which songs did you
3 write?

4 A On Songs for Dogs I wrote with -- on my own
5 totally?

6 Q Yes.

7 A I wrote Could You Be An Angel, Follow The
8 Bone Lady. I wrote a lot of them with Anne, so -- see,
9 we wrote -- a lot of that album we wrote together.
10 I wrote the words for The Very First Dog. I
11 wrote the words for Doggie Salsa. I wrote Follow The 12 Bone Lady. But I may have collaborated on the bridge
13 on that with Anne.

14 I wrote Could You Be An Angel. Anne and I
15 collaborated on If I Only Had A Thumb. And we also 16 collaborated on I Stole The Christmas Pie. And I can't
17 remember if I wrote the -- that was a collaboration, I
18 think, The "No" Song, because that was -- and Anne
19 wrote -- Anne wrote Please Don't Forget My Birthday.
20 And I can't remember -- I've Been Cryin' All Night
21 Since You're Gone, I can't remember if I wrote --
22 collaborated with that or Anne wrote that.

23 Q Okay. You're familiar with the lawsuit.
24 Obviously you're named as a Plaintiff --

25 A Uh-huh.

1 Q -- against Media Right Productions, Doug
2 Maxwell and The Orchard.

3 A Uh-huh. Yes.

4 Q Whose idea was it to file this lawsuit, if
5 you know?

6 MR. MONAGHAN: Object to that. That's
7 attorney-client. You're getting into
8 attorney-client areas.

9 MR. SHELOWITZ: I'm not getting into
10 attorney-client privilege. Lawyers don't decide
11 to file lawsuits, people do. I'm just asking her
12 if she knows who -- whose idea it was to file this 13 lawsuit.

14 MR. MONAGHAN: I still maintain the 15 objection.

16 THE DEPONENT: When -- in 2006 when we --
17 when Anne and I were talking about marketing Songs
18 for Dogs and Songs for Cats again and we went and
19 -- to the Internet to see, you know, if anything
20 was around like that, you know, if anybody had,
21 you know, run with our idea, what the marketplace
22 was like with that kind of an idea, we went into 23 -- typed in Songs for Dogs and Songs for Cats and
24 found it all over the Internet with Media Right's
25 name on it and The Orchard's name on it. We found

1       it being sold. We found our price reduced. We
2       found it being given away for free on servers all
3       around the world.

4 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

5       Q     Now, when you --

6       A     Can I please finish? Can I please finish?

7       Q     You're not answering my question.

8       A     Well, no, when we saw that, we were outraged.

9 And Anne and I were like, what happened? And it was 10 both of our ideas.

11      Q     Okay.

12      A     Then we met with Mr. Monaghan and --

13           MR. MONAGHAN: You don't have to talk about 14      that.

15 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

16      Q     You don't need to talk about your discussion
17      with --

18      A     It was both of our ideas. It was --

19      Q     And with regard to seeing songs being 20      downloaded for free, can you just elaborate on that,
21      please? Did you --

22      A     We -- yeah, I will.

23      Q     Did you see songs being downloaded for free?

24      A     Yeah. We saw our product being dismembered
25      and broken up and our songs being sold separately.

1           Q     But, again, my question was -- you said that
2 you saw songs being downloaded for free, and my
3 question is did you see songs being downloaded for 4 free?

5           A     Yes, I did.

6           Q     Complete songs?

7           A     Yes.

8           Q     Or samples?

9           A     Complete songs.

10          Q     Okay. And which -- where did you identify 11 that they were complete songs of yours?

12          A     I don't know if -- E-Music or Rhapsody. A
13 number of these different -- it would -- you know how 14 the Internet works where you go from one thing to 15 another thing to another thing, you're kind of surfing
16 along, and then you get to a place where here is your
17 song for free, and you can download it for free.

18          Q     And --

19          A     And our whole album was there for free.

20          Q     And are you aware that people can purchase
21 your music from you, in fact, and upload it onto some
22 of the servers that you're referring to right now?

23          A     I was not aware or did I ever -- I didn't 24 ever authorize anybody to ever put my music up on the 25 Internet digitally.

1 Q The question is do you know that it's
2 possible for anyone to go buy a CD of yours from you
3 and upload it on, you know, various varying servers on
4 the Internet?

5 MR. MONAGHAN: Object to the form of the 6 question. There's no foundation for that.

7 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

8 Q Okay. You can answer it.

9 MR. MONAGHAN: No, she can't answer that 10 question. I object to -- I instruct her not to 11 answer that question.

12 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

13 Q You said you were in the music business since
14 you were six years old, I believe. So my question is 15 are you aware that people can --

16 A No, I didn't say six years old, I said I've
17 been in the music business since I was 16 years old.

18 Q I apologize.

19 A Actually 12.

20 Q I apologize for that.

21 So in all of your years in the music industry
22 are you aware that people can buy music from you, pay
23 you the money and then upload your music on the 24 Internet and share it with others?

25 A I mean, are you talking about servers like

1 Napster that were shut down by the government, or
2 whoever shut them down?

3 Q Well, there are several -- more than several
4 that people can --

5 A Oh, you mean the -- are you talking about the
6 illegal file sharing of copywritten material?

7 Q All I'm talking about is whether you know
8 that people can buy your music and upload it on the 9 Internet and share it.

10 A Share it illegally?

11 Q However the -- I don't know whether it's 12 legal or illegal, but --

13 A I know that people can buy your music and 14 share it illegally.

15 Q Okay.

16 A I never authorized anybody to ever put my 17 music up for sale digitally on the Internet. I never 18 authored Mr. Maxwell, I never authorized The Orchard to 19 ever sell my music digitally on the Internet and/or 20 give it to any servers for free.

21 Q Ms. Bernfeld, there's no question --

22 A Okay.

23 Q -- being posed right now.

24 A Okay.

25 Q Are your albums available for sale by you to

1 the public?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And how can somebody purchase those albums,
4 either the Songs for Dogs or Songs for Cats?

5 A They e-mail us or they call us.

6 Q And do you have any other channels that you
7 currently sell Songs for Dogs and Songs for Cats?

8 A Not that I'm aware.

9 Q Did there come a time when you met with
10 someone named Russ Palladino?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And when was that?

13 A That was in 1996 when we had finished Songs
14 for Cats.

15 Q And what was the context in which you met
16 Mr. Palladino?

17 A I met him in relation to replicating Songs
18 for Cats and Songs for Dogs.

19 Q And can you elaborate on what you mean by 20 that?

21 A He was working at Europadisk as a sales rep
22 at the time, and I had been using a cassette
23 manufacturer and CD manufacturer in Westwood, New
24 Jersey prior to that and somebody had recommended
25 Europadisk. So I called Russ and spoke with him over

1 the phone and spoke to him about prices and decided to
2 use Europadisk for the manufacturing of Songs for Cats
3 and Songs for Dogs.

4           So I initially talked -- spoke with him over
5 the phone and decided to -- I think at that time I
6 decided to use Europadisk and then went down and met
7 with him.

8           Q     You went down and met with him?

9           A     Yes, I did.

10          Q     And do you recall the nature of the 11 relationship between Europadisk and yourself in 12 connection with the Songs for Cats?

13          A     They were going to be the manufacturer of the 14 Songs for Cats CD. And they also manufactured the 15 illustrated booklet with our story in it. And they did
16 the same for Songs for Dogs as well.

17          Q     And do you recall whether you had any
18 agreement with Europadisk at the time, any written
19 agreement?

20          A     I don't recall any written agreement, you
21 know, any -- there was no contract. There was a -- not
22 that I recall. Just an agreement to manufacture
23 whatever we had decided.

24          Q     And how many -- how many CDs did you ask
25 Europadisk to manufacture for you?

1 A I don't remember.

2 Q Was it more than five?

3 A Oh, yes.

4 Q Do you remember how much? You say you don't
5 remember, so --

6 A I don't remember the exact number. I mean, I
7 don't know if it was 1,000 -- I don't know if it was 8 1,000 or -- I don't remember.

9 Q You don't remember at all? You have no
10 recollection? You recall this discussion pretty --

11 A Yeah, I don't remember the quantities, the 12 exact quantities. I can't remember 1,000, 2,000, more,
13 less. I don't remember that, those -- the figures.

14 Q Do you have an approximate recollection of 15 how much you --

16 A Maybe. I don't remember. Maybe it was 17 1,000, maybe it was 2,000. I don't remember.

18 Q Of each or both?

19 MR. MONAGHAN: If she doesn't remember, she 20 doesn't remember.

21 THE DEPONENT: I don't remember. It was a
22 long time ago.

23 BY MR. SHELOWITZ:

24 Q I know, but you just said that it was maybe
25 1,000, maybe 2,000. So if you remember that, I'm

1 trying to understand whether it's 1,000 to 2,000 of
2 Cats and 1,000 to 2,000 of Dogs or 1,000 to 2,000 all
3 together?

4 A I really don't remember.

5 Q Do you have any records?

6 A We have records. Anne, you know, kept track
7 of that side of the business more, so she would know --
8 she may be more knowledgeable about those figures and 9 also the records.

10 Q Now, you just remembered quite vividly that 11 you met Russ Palladino. You called him, you visited 12 him, you were involved with the order. And now you're
13 saying that Anne would know more of the information.
14 So I'm confused, because it seems like whenever --

15 (Overlapping speech.)

16 Q So we'd like to know for the record, because 17 this is a key part of this case that you brought 18 against my clients, and I would like to know who has 19 the basis for the lawsuit. And if you're the one who 20 entered into these discussions, why would Anne know the 21 numbers?

22 A Well, I was a phone person. I did all the 23 interviews. I did a lot of the talking. And that's 24 why -- I spoke with people more. Anne is more -- she
25 -- and I'm a singer and Anne is more of the writer.

1 She's a composer, arranger. She writes notes and she's
2 more of a paper person. And so she kept more of an
3 organization with papers. She kept more of the records
4 and looks at paper more and I'm more of a talker. So
5 that's why I'm saying that that was her area more than 6 mine.

7 Q Okay. Although you were the one who did the 8 deal with Russ Palladino and Europadisk?

9 A I initially spoke with Russ Palladino and 10 also met Russ Palladino.

11 Q And I thought you --

12 A Excuse me?

13 Q -- CDs from Russ Palladino?

14 A Could you repeat yourself? I couldn't hear
15 the question.

16 Q Did you order manufacturing of the CDs from 17 Russ Palladino?

18 A Yeah, I ordered the CDs. But I talk with 19 Anne about everything. I never do something without
20 discussing it with Anne. So it's not like I functioned
21 as a solo person in this business and like I do all
22 this ordering and Anne doesn't know about it.

23 Q You told Russell, you know, please
24 manufacture X number, he told you the prices, you knew
25 the price, and you made the decision; is that right?

1           A     After I discussed it with Anne. In other
2 words, I don't make decisions --

3           Q     Did Anne ever call Russ Palladino and tell
4 him how many units to order, to manufacture?

5           A     I'm not sure.

6           Q     Why would she in that case if you were the 7 one --

8           A     I probably spoke with Russ. But Anne and I
9 made a decision on -- that's what I'm saying, that Anne
10 would know. You asked me initially how come I'm 11 deferring to Anne. Because -- I'm deferring to her
12 because we discussed everything. And if I don't
13 remember exactly what it was, she may remember.

14          Q     And --

15          A     It's not like I'm trying to --

16          Q     -- how did you pay for the manufacturing of 17 these CDs from Europadisk?

18          A     Yeah. We financed the production and the 19 manufacturing and all the artwork we had done.

20          Q     Did you pay by check or by cash?

21          A     Oh, no, we paid by check.

22          Q     And who is the person who is signing the 23 checks for Gloryvision?

24          A     We both signed the check.

25          Q     And so would that be correct in that you also

1 signed this check?

2 A Yes, most likely.

3 Q And do you have an invoice that you received
4 in connection with the production of these CDs?

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q And where is that located?

7 A That's in our Gloryvision files.

8 Q Because we requested a whole slew of 9 documents and we don't have anything like that. We
10 haven't received any checks. We haven't received
11 anything.

12 MR. MONAGHAN: I don't agree with that, but 13 I'm not going to -- I'm letting you go as far as 14 you wish here, Mr. Shelowitz, so that we can 15 complete this deposition.

16 MR. SHELOWITZ: If you'd like, we've been
17 going for a while, if you want to take, you know,
18 a ten-minute break, I think now would be a good
19 time for that.

20 (Break.)

21 MR. SHELOWITZ: Okay. Back on the record.
22 Could you read back the last question, please?

23 (The last question was read back by the court
24 reporter.)

25 MR. SHELOWITZ: Okay. I'm just going to

1 repeat our -- or reiterate our request for the
2 production of documents.

3 Again, Ms. Bernfeld, we submitted an
4 extensive request for the production of documents
5 to your counsel, which I'm going to show you now.
6 We'll mark it as Bernfeld Exhibit A. And for the 7 court reporter, because of the last-minute nature
8 of this, we're going to just work with one copy.
9 Mr. Monaghan has a copy of the request for the 10 production of documents, and he's going to give it
11 to you for marking purposes, although let me just 12 -- was this marked in the -- let me just see. It
13 may have been marked already.

14 MR. MONAGHAN: No.

15 MR. SHELOWITZ: Yeah. Okay. So we'll mark
16 it as Bernfeld Exhibit A if that's okay, if 17 there's no objection.

18 MR. MONAGHAN: Sure. Are you talking about
19 the request or the response?

20 MR. SHELOWITZ: The request. Do you have
21 that?

22 MR. MONAGHAN: That I'm looking for. I
23 thought you asked -- earlier I thought you asked
24 me about the response.

25 Are you talking about Defendants' First
